im Rahmen des internationalen Doktorand*innen Workshops:
New Directions in Researching Global Christianity

World Christianity as a Challenge to Traditional Academic Theology

Prof. Dr. Mika Vähäkangas

Direktor des Polin Institute for Theological Research
an der Åbo Akademi University, Turku

13. Juni 2024 - 19:30 bis 20:30 Uhr

Aula des Universitätshauptgebäudes
(Universitätsplatz 1)

Traditional academic theology as a university discipline is still rather monocultural with variations of westernness, stemming from the Constantinian and Westphalian system and gradually adapted to the Enlightenment project.

World Christianity is both a phenomenon and an academic field which studies the phenomenon. World Christianity points to the deep demographic, cultural and theological changes in Christianity which compel academic theology to change. The discipline World Christianity provides academic theology with tools of transformation.

Alle Interessierten sind herzlich eingeladen!
